

During my 25 years on court, I didn't let anyone pressure me to vote a certain way.

I made my decisions based on what the constitution says.

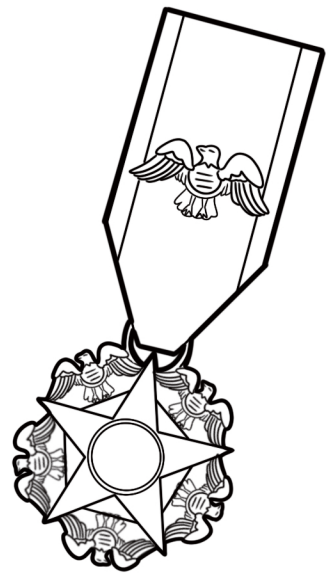

My name is Sandra Day O'Connor. I was an attorney, politician, and the first woman to serve on the American Supreme Court.

During my time in court, some publications ranked me as one of the most powerful women in the world!

Sandra Day O'Connor
Women of History

In 2009, I was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Barack Obama!

My message to young people would be to fight for what is fair and just.

For animations and lessons, visit us at: WonderGovLearn.net

Cut here 